

Save the date!

WHEN: Thursday, April 19, 2018

We're holding the next stop of our Tour of Nursery Sanitation Practices in the foothills of California at USDA Forest Service propagators. We'll make this longer trip worth your while by touring both a nursery operation and the nearby Institute of Forest Genetics. More details coming soon!

WHERE: USDA-Forest Service Nursery (2375 Fruitridge Road, Camino, CA 95709) and USDA-Forest Service, Pacific Southwest Research Station – Institute of Forest Genetics (2480 Carson Road, Placerville, CA 95667)

Approximate Agenda

8 AM Meet for carpools, locations TBD (optional)

10:30 AM Guided tour, USDA Forest Service Placerville Nursery

12 PM Travel to USFS Institute of Forest Genetics, picnic lunch (BYO) and group discussion

1 PM Seed genetics talk and arboretum field tour

2:30 PM Conclude and return home

Check the calphytos.org website for updated details and a link to register...coming soon!

Brought to you by the California Native Nursery Network, the USDA Forest Service, and the Work Group for Phytophthoras in Native Habitats.