

Tour of Sanitation Practices at Restoration Nurseries – Placerville/Camino

WHEN: Thursday, April 19, 2018

WHERE: USDA-Forest Service Nursery (2375 Fruitridge Road, Camino, CA 95709) and USDA-Forest Service, Pacific Southwest Research Station – Institute of Forest Genetics (2480 Carson Road, Placerville, CA 95667)

Agenda

8 AM OPTIONAL: Carpools depart from agreed-upon locations (sign up HERE)

10:30 AM USDA Forest Service Placerville Nursery (2375 Fruitridge Road, Camino, CA 95709)

Interactive nursery tour – Sara Wilson, Seed Bank and Extractory Manager

12 PM Travel to Institute of Forest Genetics (2480 Carson Road, Placerville, CA 95667)

12:15 PM Picnic lunch (BYO) and group discussion

Presidio/Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy collecting protocols – Stacy Jacobsen, GGNPC Seed Collector

1 PM USDA-FS, Pacific Southwest Research Station – Institute of Forest Genetics

Facility tour, pine & oak provenance presentation – Jessica Wright, Research Geneticist

2:30 PM Conclude tour, return home

Brought to you by the California Native Nursery Network, the USDA-Forest Service, and the Work Group for Phytophthoras in Native Habitats.