

Forest Management in Western Sonoma County: Sudden Oak Death (Phytophthora ramorum) and other issues for small landowners

20 July 2006 - 10:30 am to 4:30 pm Forum Room, Guerneville Regional Library 14107
Armstrong Woods Rd., Guerneville, CA 95446

10:30 Welcome & overview of workshop Janice Alexander, UCCE Marine/COMTF

10:40 Sudden Oak Death in Forests and Landscapes

- Basic overview of the pathogen and disease Dave Rizzo, UC Davis
- Diagnosis and sampling John Bienapfl, UC Davis
- Treatment options Doug Schmidt, UC Berkeley
- Wildland control projects Chris Lee, UCCE Humboldt

12:00 Lunch

12:30 Case study - Stewart's Point Rancheria

- Kashia Pomo Indians Introduction Bradley Marshall, Kashia Pomo Indians
- Kashia forest treatment Ted Swiecki, Kashia Pomo Indians

1:30 Break

1:45 Management Issues and Information

- Plant Identification Veronica Corella, Kashia Pomo Indians
- Restoration and gardening with native hosts Ruby Herrick, California Native Plant Society
- Fuels Management Caerleon Safford, Sonoma County Fire Safe Council
- Regulatory issues Cree Morgan, Sonoma County Agriculture Department

2:45 Break

3:00 Management Issues cont.

- Best Management Practices Jack Marshall, CDF
- Phytophthora ramorum - consuming amoebas from Annadel State Park Michael Cohen, Sonoma State University
- Research directions and input Susan Frankel, USDA-FS Pacific Southwest Research Station

4:00 Questions & Answer Session

4:30 Adjourn